Who we are

Sport England is an arms-length body of government responsible for growing and developing grassroots sport and getting more people active across England.

We were established by Royal Charter – which is an instrument of incorporation granted by the King – and began operating as Sport England in 1997.

The role at a glance

The Press & External Affairs Officer salary is advertised at £30,500 per annum, for homeworking or hybrid-office based in Loughborough or Bisham. The postholder must be living in the UK for the duration of employment.

Planning & Delivery

Communications

Relationship &
Stakeholder Management

Additional duties

Please note it is Sport England's policy to appoint to the advertised salary.

The role

As Press and External Affairs Officer, you will help to deliver Sport England's external affairs and media engagement.

You will have the opportunity to regularly and proactively engage with our sponsor department – the Department for Digital, Culture Media & Sport (DCMS) – and political and media stakeholders at both a national and local level.

You will seek out opportunities to share Sport England's work with journalists, government and parliamentarians, while developing relationships with these stakeholders to increase the understanding of Sport England's mission and impact.

About the directorate

The Digital, Marketing and Communications Directorate is responsible for delivering digital content, marketing, campaigns, and communications.

With expertise in commercial partnerships, social media, editorial, open data, data analytics, consumer innovation, internal communications, external affairs and press and media, the team provides functional expertise, both within Sport England and across our network of partners and customers.

The Press and External Affairs teams are responsible for protecting and enhancing Sport England's reputation, promoting sport and physical activity, and advocating for the benefits getting active brings with MPs, Peers, Government and journalists.

This is an exciting opportunity to join our award-winning Digital, Marketing and Communications directorate.

Our mission

Right now, the opportunities to get involved in sport and activity depend too much on your background, your gender, your bank balance and your postcode. We're determined to tackle this and unlock the advantages of sport and physical activity for everyone.

We're here to invest in sport and physical activity to make it a normal part of life for everyone in England, regardless of who you are. Together, we can change lives for the better in every home, and in every community, right across the country.

Our values

Our values define who we are as an organisation and highlight what we do to go the extra mile to set us apart. From creating an organisation we all enjoy, believe and thrive in, to creating a positive employer brand and effective partnerships with our stakeholders.

Our values are embedded in everything we do including our recruitment process and we encourage candidates to read about our values on our careers page
